From: Commanding Officer
To: Distribution

Subj: MOTOR VEHICLE TRAFFIC SUPERVISION

1. Purpose. To direct pen changes to the basic order.

2. Action

a. On Page 3-5, paragraph 10, second sentence, insert ", or their designee," to read:

"Unit Commanding Officers, or their designee, must grant authorization for a military member E-6 and below to issue a POA in the case of a permanent change of station (PCS)."

b. On Page 3-6, paragraph 10.b., remove the second sentence to read:

"b. PDI and JCI must be valid the entire time the POA is in effect."

c. On page 7-1, paragraph 1.b., replace the paragraph to read:

"b. Entry of Pleas. An alleged offender shall report to their assigned traffic court date and enter a plea of guilty or not guilty to the traffic court magistrate."

d. On page 7-1, paragraph 1.b.(1), replace the paragraph to read:

"(1) An alleged offender who receives a warning 1408 and has the intent to disagree with the infraction in order to remove it from their record shall report to the Pass and Registration Office to enter a plea of not guilty to the traffic court clerk/noncommissioned officer (NCO) within 72 hours of receipt of a warning traffic citation. If the alleged offender does not intend to challenge the warning infraction there is no requirements to plead guilty or not guilty to the traffic court clerk/NCO."

3. Filing Instructions. File this change transmittal immediately following the signature page of Change 3 to the basic order.
