

GUIDE FOR U.S. CITIZEN (CIVILIAN/FAMILY MEMBER) UNDER SOFA, TO MARRY IN JAPAN
(revised: July 18, 2019)

This guide is prepared for a U.S. citizen civilian/family member under SOFA status to marry in Japan.

Marriage in Japan consists of registration of the marriage at a Japanese Government office. This registration constitutes a legal marriage and is recognized such throughout the United States.

=====

1. U.S. Citizen under SOFA excluding military members needs to submit the following documents to register your marriage with the local Japanese authority:

_____ AFFIDAVIT OF COMPETENCY TO MARRY: being executed at the Legal Assistance Office;
(see the sample attached with this guide.)

_____ ORIGINAL evidence of U.S. citizenship: your current U.S. Passport (fee and/or official). It is preferable that you have your U.S. birth or Naturalization certificate, being embossed seal of the issuing authority thereon, in addition to your U.S. passport.

_____ ORIGINAL (preferable) or copy (if unable to obtain the original): evidence of termination of previous marriage(s): If any previous marriage(s) ended by legal divorce or unfortunate death, obtain an official decree(s) of divorce(s), annulment or certificate(s) of death from the issuing authority.

_____ In case of minor: If you and/or your fiancée are a minor under Japanese law (under 18 years old), the fiancée requires a parental consent for marriage. If this is a case, please contact with a Japanese city official or to the Legal Assistance Office.

2. Upon assembling applicable documents, SET UP APPOINTMENT at the Legal Assistance Office: POC @253-5594/253-5591/253-5592. Please bring the applicable documents stated above and the information sheet attached with this guide. The Legal Assistance Office will draft and execute YOUR (SOFA personnel) Affidavit of Competency to Marry.

NOTE: If your fiancée is a U.S. citizen or third country national living in Japan under Japanese visa status, or coming to Japan for marriage, he/she is NOT UNDER SOFA. Therefore, he/she needs to seek for information and/or assistance from U.S. Embassy Tokyo web site: <https://jp.usembassy.gov/u-s-citizen-services/local-resources-of-u-s-citizens/marriage/> for U.S. citizen, or third country national's respective embassy or consulate located in Japan for marrying with U.S. citizen in Japan. Each country has its own regulations and document required.

3. Translation into Japanese language: Japanese local authority requests Japanese translation for all your foreign language documents. The Legal Assistance Office provides blank translation forms. Anybody can translate your documents into Japanese; your fiancée, friend, or co-workers, professional translator, etc.

4. Register your marriage with Japanese government official off-base: the required documents are -

- ① U.S. CITIZENSHIP – ORIGINAL U.S. passport and/or U.S. Birth or Naturalization certificate
- ② AFFIDAVIT OF COMPETENCY TO MARRY – executed at the Legal Assistance office
- ③ U.S. CITIZEN DOD I.D. Card
- ④ Completed notification and registration form (Kon-In Todoke) - Pink form
- ⑤ Japanese translation for any and all foreign documents of above ①, ②, & ③
- ⑥ Divorce decree or death certificate of ex-spouse(s) if applicable

The blank pink form (④) notification and report of marriage (called “Kon-In Todoke”- pink form) must be completed in Japanese language. Two witnesses over 20 years old of any nationality and of sound mind must sign/witness this report.

5. Marriage certificate: After submitting required documents to a Japanese city official, the city office will duly accept the report of marriage. Upon being accepted, you are married. The city official will issue a certificate of acceptance of marriage upon your request. This document is the legal marriage proof.

Big portion (bigger than legal size paper): costs you around 1,400 yen; and/or Small portion (letter size paper): costs you around 400 yen.

6. Immigration visa I-130: If your acquired family member(s) who are not a U.S. citizen(s), it is recommended that you file an I-130 petition for her/him/them with U.S. Citizen Immigration Services (USCIS) in Chicago Lock Box as quickly as possible. This is the first step for your non-U.S. citizen family member(s) to be recognized as eligible visa applicant at the U.S. Embassy Tokyo. Upon your petition approval, second step comes for your non-U.S. citizen family member(s) take action. After the individual interview is conducted at U.S. Embassy Tokyo or at U.S. Consulate Okinawa, the immigrant visa will be issued to your non-U.S. citizen family member(s), then he/she/they will be able to enter U.S. as an Immigrant (so-called “Green Card holder”).

7. Notes for your interests:

- ☐ I.D. CARD issuance – Ask I-PAC or Admin/Personnel Office of your employer
- ☐ Enrolling dependency status to personal records – Ask your Admin/Personnel Officer
- ☐ Social Security Number for your Non-U.S. citizen family member(s) – Social Security Number is assigned to only U.S. citizen or Legal Permanent Resident (called green card holder)
